“ I was so sorry to hear about your dad. I think of him often. (What would my law practice look like if I'd let him teach me how to golf?) He was a great neighbor. He was fun and he was caring. I still remember when he drove his car 25 feet to park in front of my parents' house because, as he put it, "it doesn't feel like a party unless you drive there." He always checked in on my mom after my dad passed away and it meant a lot to her and to us. Thinking of all of you.
